Project Expenditure Category	3-Public Health-Negative Economic Impact: Public Sector Capacity
Project Expenditure Subcategory	3.1-Public Sector Workforce: Payroll and Benefits for Public Health, Public Safety, or Human Services Workers
Status To Completion	Completed 50% or more
Adopted Budget	$920,967.28
Total Cumulative Obligations	$835,131.00
Total Cumulative Expenditures	$821,631.25
Current Period Obligations	($429.19)
Current Period Expenditures	$16,759.11
Project Description	Provide worker retention incentive to persuade City police officers to remain with City as compared to other options they have available to them.
Does this project include a capital expenditure?	No
Brief description of structure and objectives of assistance program(s), including public health or negative economic impact experienced	The City has lost more than 20 police officers during the pandemic. This has caused hardship to the remaining officers by requiring mandatory overtime and limited time off availability to them. A retention incentive approach will assist in maintaining the current level of officers until we can hire new recruits and backfill positions. The City needs full staffing to respond to the increased gun violence due to the pandemic.
Brief description of recipient's approach to ensuring that response is reasonable and proportional to a public health or negative economic impact of Covid-19	The $400,000 cost of this program for 123 employees is reasonable to the negative impact it is causing to the City and police staffing, and represents a small percentage, per average officer, of their annual salary.
Number of government FTEs responding to COVID-19 supported under this authority	4
